Draftee Weds Girl From Coalinga at Yuma, Arizona

The wedding of Fred H. Curler, son of Mrs. Luella Curler, to Miss Freda Noblet of Coalinga, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Noblet of Fresno, was solemnized Saturday morning, May 31, at Yuma, Arizona.

A gay send-off party was enjoyed at Ocean Park Friday evening and upon the return of the bride and groom Sunday a wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Curler, 1732 Cabrillo avenue. Those present were Mrs. Luella Curler, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Carson of Whittier, Elmer, Buss and Bob Bruce of Coalinga and Jack Kent.

Curler, whose family have been residents of Torrance for the past 25 years, left this morning with the 9th draft call-out while his bride will return to Coalinga where she is a beauty operator.

Job's Daughters Hold Term End Ceremonies Here

Bringing to a close a successful term of office, Miss Vivian Wertalla, retiring honored queen of Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters, presided at a colorful ceremony Tuesday evening when she conferred an honorary degree on 11 members who have reached their majority. Receiving the degree were Marian Spehger, Euphrasia Taylor, Patty Post, Doris Kresse, Georgina Tiffany, Lynne Boyd, Marcella Crook, Vivian Wertalla and Mmes. Barbara McCune Clinger, Barbara Hall Shaw and Virginia Tyra Jones.

Official pins were presented to Mrs. Edith Wertalla, Bethel guardian, and A. E. Kerber, associate guardian, and Mrs. Margaret Gutfenfelder, president of Job's Daughters' Mothers Club, received her official pin from Mrs. Wertalla, retiring president. Many lovely gifts were presented to the Bethel by the mothers club.

FAST ORACLES CLUB MEETS

Torrance Camp No. 8908, Royal Neighbors of America, was represented at the sixth anniversary of Past Oracles Club at the home of Mrs. C. Harrington in Moorpark Park, Inglewood, Monday. The affair served as a going away party for Mamie Kirshner, district deputy, who will leave soon for Duluth, Minn., to attend the national R.N.A. convention. She was presented with a handsome gift from the group.

Those present from Torrance were Past Oracles L. Benzel, Mary Baker, Helen Fouts, Mary Conner, Elsie Smith and Louise Walker. The next meeting of the organization will be held at Ocean Park in July.

Woman's Club Has Gala Program for Installation

MRS. C. B. MITCHELL

Yesterday was a gala day for members of Torrance Woman's Club and guests. Following luncheon they enjoyed one of the most outstanding musical programs of the year. Miss Ruby Elzy, well known concert singer, presented a group of Negro spirituals and classical numbers. Immediately following the musical program arranged by Mrs. A. H. Silligo, program chairman, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell and her staff of officers for 1941-42 were installed at a colorful ceremony by Mrs. Edward Mobarrey, district director, C. F. W. C. Mrs. Mobarrey used a wheel theme with the newly-elected president as the hub and her board members forming spokes. "The Lord's Prayer," sung by Miss Elzy provided an impressive note for the rites.

New draperies, the product of the Ways and Means committee's chief objective of the year, were used in the clubhouse for the first time. The committee, headed by Mrs. H. E. Massie, was warmly commended for this fine addition to the interior of the building.

MRS. GRAMLING SEES FOLSOM PRISON

Mrs. Carl Gramling of 908 Oota ave. was one of a party of about 100 women who were privileged to tour Folsom prison last week when the Knights of Columbus were holding their annual convention in Sacramento. The women were informed by prison authorities that this was only the second time in 68 years that women were allowed to visit inside the prison walls. The group also had luncheon in the prison, which is California's detention place for two-time losers. Later they were entertained at a program given by prisoners in the chapel. The visitors were also shown articles used by prisoners in fruitless attempts to escape and other articles made by inmates.

BRUNCH CLUB AT SCOTTON HOME

Mrs. J. B. Scotton entertained her bridge club at her home on El Prado last Thursday. Cecile Bruner and Belle of Portugal roses were used in the rooms and brunch covers were placed for Mmes. Robert Burns, a club guest, and J. R. Wilkes, R. L. Lewellen, Dean L. Sears, George H. Moore and W. I. Laughon. High score holders at contract were Mmes. Moore and Scotton.

Astonishing Discoveries

Who was the business man knocked out of a boat by the powerful tail of an alligator? Which persons owns a duck that laid three eggs in one day? Where is the woman located who started her career juggling potatoes on her dad's vegetable wagon? This and more will be revealed in our "People You Should Know" column, so don't miss a single issue. See 4-B!

Overheard some noteworthy sparkles also on the below and as soon as completed look for Harold Langworth, Harvey Graham, Alfred Maberley, Bill Shawger, Charles Herralls, Fritz Merralls, Hillman R. Lee, Paul Crawshaw, H. C. (Jack) Barrington, Aubrey Smith and John Yasul.
